OUR STORY

Tolins Tyres was founded in 1982 by the late K. P. Varkey, a visionary entrepreneur who believed that India could stand shoulder to shoulder with the world in the tire and retreading industry. What began in Mattoor Kalady as a small-scale tread rubber unit was not just a manufacturing venture, it was a statement of intent. At a time when the Indian automotive sector was still developing, Tolins went out to build a reputation for precision, durability, and innovation.

The early years were defined by steady growth. By 1985, Tolins had already commissioned its second unit, establishing the foundation of what would become a multi-faceted manufacturing ecosystem. These were years of laying down roots by investing in people, technology, and processes with an unhinged focus on creating products that would change the industry

(Founder, Late. K.P Varkey Commissioning a New Plant in Kerala)

The Decade of Expansion and Engineering Excellence (1990s)

The 1990s were a turning point for Tolins. In 1990, the company inaugurated its third unit, launching the production of pre-cured tread rubber (PCTR) with an initial capacity of 100 MT per month. This was a bold leap into new product categories, one that reflected the company's forward-thinking DNA. By 1992, Tolins acquired a Mixing Unit, a strategic move that strengthened vertical integration and provided greater control over product quality. In 1994, the fourth unit was established, dedicated exclusively to pre-cured tread rubber, expanding capacity to 250 MT per month. The same period saw the launch of another ultra-modern mixing unit in 1997, raising total production capacity to 900 tons per month. These years were also about looking outward. In 1998, Tolins made its first export shipment to the Middle East. This entry into international markets laid the foundation for what would later become a hallmark of the company's growth story. Tolins Tyres became a brand from Kerala, establishing itself as a trusted name across continents.

The Global Breakthrough (2000s)

The new millennium ushered in a period of bold global ambition. In 2006, Tolins achieved a historic milestone by becoming a multinational manufacturer, establishing a full-fledged plant in Ras Al-Khaimah, UAE. This was the company's formal arrival on the international stage.

Recognition soon followed. In 2007, Tolins received the Best Exporter Award from the Government of India, an accolade it went on to receive for five consecutive years. These awards validated Tolins' ability to deliver quality that travels across borders.

During this era, Tolins also achieved a landmark distinction, it became the first Indian retread brand to not only enter but also flourish in the highly competitive American market for pre-cured retreading products. This achievement underscored Tolins' ability to compete and succeed at the highest global standards, proving that an Indian brand could earn trust in one of the world's toughest markets.

The mid-2000s marked Tolins' foray into tyre manufacturing at the Kalady Plant, and by 2008, nearly 90% of production was being exported to international markets. Tolins was now a global competitor, active in some of the most demanding international markets.

The Decade of Diversification and Transformation (2010s)

The 2010s marked another chapter of evolution. In 2010, Tolins doubled its tyre production capacity, emphasizing its ability to scale while maintaining uncompromising standards. By 2014, the company identified a growing opportunity in the two-wheeler and three-wheeler segment and launched a dedicated unit at Kalady. This strategic diversification not only strengthened the product portfolio but also cemented Tolins' reputation as a company that closely analyses the market and acts decisively.

Internationally, Tolins continued to strengthen its footprint, expanding into Central America with a warehouse in El Salvador, and entering Turkey, Sri Lanka, and Bangladesh. These expansions were backed by our strong supply chains and customer-focused service models, allowing Tolins to serve clients with speed and reliability.

But this decade was not only about tyres. Tolins Group expanded into education, establishing a world-class school at the foothills of the Western Ghats, reflecting its commitment to nurturing future generations. The group also progressed into tourism, creating unique experiences on the banks of the Vembanad Lake in Alleppey. This chapter showed that expansion was not restricted to tyres alone, but was a deliberate effort to build institutions that touch everyday lives.

A New Era of Scale and Technology (2020s–Present)

In 2021, Tolins redefined its production capabilities by automating its manufacturing lines, enabling an output of 5,000 tyres per day. This step went beyond a simple increase in capacity, reflecting Tolins' drive for technological excellence, sustainable operations, and consistent quality. Automation allowed Tolins to meet international benchmarks with precision and prepared the ground for its next stage of expansion.

In September 2024, Tolins Tyres achieved another historic milestone; it was officially listed on Indian stock exchanges. This event not only symbolized four decades of resilience and growth but also positioned the company for a new era of transparency, investor trust, and global competitiveness.

Parallely, the group expanded into Healthcare and FMCG, with the launch of Tolins Foods and Tolins Skin Science. These ventures marked a new beginning that carries forward Tolins' entrepreneurial spirit into new industries, backed by the same values of quality, innovation, and consumer trust.

OUR PRODUCTS

Two-Wheelers & Three-Wheelers

For everyday commuters and commercial riders, Tolins delivers tyres that combine safety, comfort, and fuel efficiency. These tyres are engineered to withstand diverse road conditions while ensuring a smooth and dependable ride.

LCV Tyres

Designed for heavy loads and long distances, these tyres are recognized for their robust construction, superior mileage, and strong retreadability, which ensures value and reliability for fleet operators and companies alike.

Agricultural Tyre

Crafted with the farming community in mind, these tyres are optimized for grip, soil preservation, and long service life. They support productivity in demanding agricultural environments with an ode to sustainability.

Precured Tread Rubber

Retreading, more than an industrial process, is a sustainability practice that extends tyre life, reduces costs, and minimizes environmental waste. It is a process where the worn-out tread of a tyre is replaced with a new layer of tread. At the heart of this process lies Precured Tread Rubber (PCTR), a technology where Tolins Tyres has been a pioneers in a way.

Precured tread is manufactured by applying a layer of pre-vulcanized rubber with a predetermined tread pattern onto a fabric or steel belt. Unlike conventional treads, the precuring process ensures the rubber is already vulcanized, making it ready-to-use, efficient, and highly durable. This innovation makes retreading faster, more reliable, and more costeffective, which is critical for fleet operators, transporters, and industries that demand maximum value from their tyres.

Tolins Tyres has built a reputation as a trusted global supplier of precured tread products and retreading materials. Our Tolins Tread range offers diverse tread patterns tailored to different terrains and vehicle types, ensuring performance consistency across applications.

To complement the tread itself, Tolins manufactures a full line of retreading accessories, each designed to reinforce the bond between the new tread and the existing casing. These include:

Bonding Gum

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

"Our journey has always been about more than just numbers —it is about building trust, constant innovation, and shaping a sustainable future for generations to come."

Dear Shareholders,

As we reflect on the past year, I am delighted to report a story of resilience, flexibility, and strategic advancement. Tolins Tyres welcomed change with great speed and remained steadfastly committed to its principles in the midst of macroeconomic turbulence and a transforming automotive market. Publishing this year's Annual Report, which marks our achievements, challenges overcome, and the manner in which we are working towards an enhanced and sustainable future, makes me feel proud and optimistic.

FY25 Performance

FY25 has been a year of strategic transformation and financial consolidation for Tolins Tyres. We are pleased to report strong top line growth of 28.9% and a nearly 49% rise in net profit year-on-year, despite global headwinds and raw material volatility. This performance underscores the strength of our diversified geographic footprint, with the UAE contributing significantly to revenue momentum, and the effectiveness of our operational efficiency measures.

Our sharp reduction in borrowings—from Rs. 787.72 million to Rs. 167.44 million—and the improvement in our current ratio to nearly 5.5 times highlight our commitment to prudent financial management. Furthermore, our ROCE of 15 % and consistent profit margins reflect a stronger, leaner, and more resilient business model.

Looking ahead, we remain committed to scaling our manufacturing utilization, broadening our product portfolio, and deepening our presence across key domestic and international markets. With strong tailwinds from the growing mobility ecosystem and a focused strategy on capacity optimization and product innovation, we are confident in our path toward long-term, sustainable growth. As we move forward, we remain focused on investing in innovation, and delivering long-term value to our stakeholders through sustainable growth and operational excellence.

Strategic Roadmap for the Future

Our plan at Tolins Tyres is founded upon innovation, customer focus, and sustainable development. We are committed to enlarging our portfolio of products, enhancing automation of our processes, and developing new markets — both local and international.

Strengthening Core Operations

Our primary focus remains on deepening our customer relationships and expanding our distribution network. We are entering FY26 with a robust pipeline of dealer partnerships and OEM collaborations. Our presence in the export market continues to grow, with increased traction in Africa, South-east Asia, and the Middle East. In the PCTR segment, we plan to drive consolidation in what remains a largely unorganised sector, leveraging a variety of business models to strengthen market presence and operational efficiency.

Product Innovation

Product expansion continues to be a growth driver. We launched this year a fresh series of high-performance tyres for electric two-wheelers — an example of our R&D prowess and market insight. While launching new products, we are also keenly working on strengthening our current range with more innovative and imaginative methods. We are considering sustainable options and green tyres, which conform to worldwide ESG norms and our environmental stewardship philosophy.

As we start a new fiscal year, we do so with enthusiasm and optimism. Our fundamentals are strong, and our strategic efforts are already yielding positive outcomes. I am optimistic about our future and look forward to a year of improved performance and continued creation of stakeholder value.

On behalf of all the Tolins Tyres staff, I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the trust and faith you have placed in us. As we drive into the future at rapid pace, we have one shared vision – to be a strong, dependable, and responsible contender in the global tyre market.

We look forward to continuing this exciting journey together.

Warm regards,
Dr. K.V Tolin

SUSTAINABILITY & CSR

The Responsibility

Sustainability is not a project or a department, it is the way business is designed and executed. Every decision, from the energy that powers the factories to the materials that go into the tyres, is guided by a simple principle:

“growth must not come at the expense of the planet or the communities around us.”

In a world where industries are often seen as part of the problem, the approach here is to prove that large-scale manufacturing can also be part of the solution. This means integrating renewable energy, conserving scarce resources, extending product life cycles, and investing directly in people and communities.

Elements of Responsibility:

Energy: 100% Biofuel-Powered Plants

The manufacturing footprint runs entirely on biofuels, making the company one of the pioneers in adopting a renewable energy-driven model in the tyre industry. This shift dramatically reduces greenhouse gas emissions and breaks away from the traditional dependence on fossil fuels. But the choice of biofuels is more than a compliance checkbox. It is a statement:

“heavy industry can transition to clean energy without compromising productivity or efficiency.”

Every tyre that rolls out of the factory is backed by a production system that actively contributes to lowering the global carbon load.

Water: Closed-Loop Recycling

In manufacturing, water is often invisible yet heavily consumed. By implementing closed-loop recycling systems, every litre of water used in production is recovered, treated, and reused. This ensures that wastage is minimal and that surrounding communities are not deprived of essential resources. The approach is simple:

“every drop count.”

Water is treated as a shared resource, and the responsibility extends beyond operations to future generations who depend on its availability.

Products: Sustainable Mobility Through Retreading

Sustainability is also built into the products themselves. The Pre-Cured Tread Rubber (PCTR) division reflects this:

“Retreading gives tyres a second life, reducing raw material consumption, cutting waste, and lowering the environmental footprint of mobility.”

Globally, retreading is recognized as one of the most effective ways to make transport more sustainable. By promoting retreading, the company positions itself not only as a tyre manufacturer but as an enabler of sustainable mobility. Fleets, farmers, and everyday riders all benefit from products that are designed to last longer, perform better, and generate less waste.

Materials: Responsible Sourcing

The sustainability journey extends deep into the supply chain. Rubber and other raw materials are sourced with an emphasis on traceability, ethics, and reduced environmental impact. The focus is not only on how tyres are produced but also:

“on where the materials come from, and under what conditions.”

Responsible sourcing creates accountability across the value chain of the supply, ensuring that every stakeholder share in the commitment to sustainability.

Processes: Waste & Emission Control

“Modern production cannot afford to think in linear terms.”

Waste from one process becomes input for another, and emissions are tightly managed through advanced filtration and recycling systems. Scrap rubber is repurposed, chemical waste is treated, and emission levels are kept within the strictest international standards. This reflects a transition to a circular economy mindset, where resources are kept in use for as long as possible, and waste is treated not as an inevitability but as a design flaw to be solved.

CSR Commitments

Sustainability does not stop at the factory gates. A business that thrives has a responsibility to uplift the communities around it. The focus areas are:

Education, Infrastructure, Healthcare, and Awareness.

● Education Access

By supporting over 20 underprivileged students in their primary education through non-profit partnerships, the company invests in the next generation. Education is viewed not as charity, but as nation-building at the grassroots level.

● Community Infrastructure

In communities where facilities are located, investments have been made to upgrade street lighting and local infrastructure. Small interventions like this have a profound impact on safety, connectivity, and quality of life, ensuring progress is shared beyond the factory walls.

● Healthcare Access

Through collaborations with local clinics and health camps, communities gain access to essential medical services and preventive healthcare. This is part of a broader belief that well-being must be inclusive.

● Environmental Awareness

Sustainability is not just about operations but also about mindsets. Awareness programs in surrounding areas focus on road safety, waste management, and environmental responsibility, creating a ripple effect that spreads beyond the business.

Business category wise performance:

Tolins Tyres Limited operates predominantly in two segment—tyre and tyre-related products—catering to diverse categories such as LCV, Agri, Two- and Three-Wheeler, and more. The performance during FY2024–25 reflects growth momentum across core categories, supported by strategic expansion, enhanced dealer networks, and increased brand visibility.

Tyres

Tolins manufactures and markets new tyres for Light commercial vehicles, two-wheelers, Three Wheeler and off-road vehicles. The Company witnessed robust demand in the off-road and two-wheeler segments, especially in the replacement market, which contributed significantly to volume and revenue growth. Innovations in tread design and durability improvements helped consolidate its position in key geographies.

Retreaded Tyres

The retreading business continued to be a cornerstone for the Company, catering primarily to fleet operators and logistics companies seeking cost-efficient and sustainable tyre solutions. The Company offers complete retreading products, manufacturing high-quality pre-cured tread rubber and bonding gum under stringent quality standards. FY2025 witnessed a notable increase in demand for retreaded tyres, driven by a surge in road freight movement and growing awareness around environmental sustainability. According to Future Market Insights, the global retread tyre market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 6%, fueled by rising pressure on fleets to reduce operating costs and adopt eco-friendly practices. Retreaded tyres significantly lower carbon footprints compared to new tyres, making them an attractive choice for environmentally conscious fleet owners. The Company remains well-positioned to capitalize on this momentum with its quality-driven and cost-effective retreading offerings.

Exports

Tolins expanded its international footprint, with exports accounting for approximately 6.4% of total standalone revenue during the year. The Middle East and Southeast Asia remained the primary markets, where the Company leveraged competent product, consistent product performance, to grow its brand presence.

Risks & Concerns:

The business of Tolins Tyres, like any manufacturing and consumer-driven enterprise, is subject to a range of risks. The Company has instituted robust internal processes and strategic foresight to mitigate these challenges and ensure business continuity.

- Raw Material Price Volatility

Natural rubber, synthetic rubber, carbon black, and other petrochemical derivatives form the bulk of input materials for tyre manufacturing. Prices of these commodities are influenced by global market dynamics and currency fluctuations. Sudden spikes in prices can adversely impact margins, especially in the short term. The Company mitigates this risk through diversified sourcing, forward contracts, and long-term supplier relationships.

- Competition Risk

A part of our revenue is derived from bias tyres, where pricing pressures could impact profitability. Tolins mitigates this risk by positioning its products as value-for-money, strengthening dealer relationships, and reinforcing brand recall through consistent quality.

- Export Risk

While exports contribute a healthy share to Tolins' revenue, the business remains exposed to geopolitical shifts, trade policy changes, and currency fluctuations. Currency hedging mechanisms and regional market diversification help in reducing the impact of these risks.

OPPORTUNITIES & THREATS

Opportunities

The Indian tyre industry stands at the cusp of transformation, driven by rising demand across commercial, passenger, and two-wheeler segments, infrastructure expansion, a growing logistics sector, and the adoption of electric mobility. Tolins Tyres is well-positioned to harness these opportunities through strategic expansion, innovation, and customer-centric product offerings.

- Expansion of the Retread Tyre Market

The global retread tyre market is projected to grow from USD 11.2 billion in 2023 to USD 20 billion by 2033, registering a CAGR of 6%. This growth is driven by fleet operators seeking cost-effective and sustainable tyre solutions. In India, more than 70% of truck tyres are retreaded at least once, highlighting the significant role of retreading in the commercial vehicle segment. Tolins Tyres, with its expertise in pre-cured tread rubber and bonding gum, is well-equipped to meet this rising demand.

- Rising Demand in Commercial and Agricultural Sectors

India's position as the third-largest automotive market globally, coupled with government investments in road infrastructure, is fuelling demand for durable and performance-oriented tyres in commercial and agricultural sectors. The increasing radialisation in commercial vehicles enhances the potential for multiple retreading cycles, offering cost savings and extended tyre life.

- Growth in the Replacement Market & restrictions on tyre imports.

The replacement tyre market in India accounts for over 60% of the sector's volumes. Factors such as a growing vehicle base, improved road connectivity in rural areas, and heightened consumer awareness of safety and performance are driving demand for high-quality replacement tyres. Tolins Tyres' robust distribution network and reputation for reliability position it to effectively serve this expanding market.

- Opportunities in Electric Vehicle (EV) Segment

The push for EV adoption, supported by government incentives and a shift towards cleaner mobility, has created a new vertical for tyres tailored to electric powertrains. EVs require tyres with low rolling resistance, extended durability, and noise-reducing features. Tolins Tyres is investing in R&D to develop a portfolio of EV-compatible tyres across two-wheelers, three-wheelers, and commercial EVs.

- Expansion in Export Markets

With the global tyre market projected to surpass USD 150 billion by 2030, Indian tyre companies are increasing their footprint in regions like the Middle East, Africa, Southeast Asia, and Latin America. Tolins Tyres' consistent export performance, especially to the UAE and surrounding Gulf regions, presents an opportunity to further expand through competitive pricing, customization, and local partnerships.

- Government Initiatives and Infrastructure Development

The Indian government's focus on infrastructure modernization, including expressways, freight corridors, and rural connectivity, directly impacts tyre demand. Initiatives like PM Gati Shakti, the National Logistics Policy, and the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme for auto components promote indigenous manufacturing and bolster logistics, thereby increasing the usage of heavy-duty tyres across sectors.

- Emphasis on Sustainability and Retreading Solutions

As Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) considerations become central to corporate strategies, retreading is gaining traction due to its cost savings and environmental benefits. Tolins Tyres' legacy in tread rubber manufacturing and pre-cured solutions gives it a competitive edge in serving logistics and commercial fleet operators seeking value-driven, green alternatives.

- Growth in Rural and Tier-2/Tier-3 Markets

Improved road infrastructure and rising rural prosperity are stimulating demand for two-wheeler and farm vehicle tyres in non-metro areas. Tolins Tyres is tapping into this opportunity through region-specific dealership expansion and targeted marketing strategies to cater to the growing aspirations of rural India.

Threat from Global Tyre Majors

Tolins Tyres, like other Indian manufacturers, operates in a highly competitive landscape that includes large multinational tyre brands with vast financial resources, advanced technology, and deep global distribution networks. These global players have the ability to scale quickly, offer aggressive pricing, and dominate premium product segments, which can challenge market share for Indian mid-sized companies.

- Volatility in Raw Material Supply and Pricing

Tyre manufacturing heavily relies on natural rubber, synthetic rubber, and crude oil derivatives. Fluctuations in raw material prices, coupled with potential disruptions in the global supply chain due to geopolitical tensions, trade restrictions, or climatic factors affecting rubber production, can significantly impact production costs and operational continuity.

- Rapid Technological Advancements Leading to Obsolescence

The tyre industry is witnessing swift advancements in design and material sciences, especially in developed markets. Innovations such as EV-optimized tyres, noise-reducing tread designs, and smart tyres with embedded sensors are becoming industry standards. Companies that fail to keep pace with these trends risk losing competitiveness and market share.

- Stringent Regulatory and Compliance Requirements

Increasing environmental norms related to tyre waste disposal, rolling resistance, and safety labelling standards (e.g., BIS compliance in India or EU labelling norms for exports) present operational and financial challenges. Non-compliance or delays in adapting to new regulations can result in penalties, loss of market access, or damage to brand reputation.

- Competition from Unorganized Retreading Sector

In the retreading segment, Tolins Tyres faces stiff competition from the unorganized sector, where price undercutting and substandard quality offerings often distort market dynamics. This not only affects profit margins but also impacts customer perception toward retreading solutions.

- Shifting Consumer Preferences and Brand Loyalty Challenges

With increasing awareness and a plethora of choices, consumers, especially in urban markets, are becoming more brand-conscious. The preference for premium, internationally recognized brands poses a risk to smaller and mid-tier players unless sustained investments in branding, customer engagement, and innovation are made.

- Perception and Safety Concerns Regarding Retreaded Tyres

Despite technological advancements improving the quality and safety of retreaded tyres, consumer perception remains a challenge. Concerns about the safety and performance of retreaded tyres, particularly for passenger vehicles, can hinder market adoption. Additionally, some insurance companies do not recommend the use of retreaded tyres for passenger cars due to safety considerations.

Exports Performance (FY25)

The export business for Tolin Tyres in FY25 has shown promising growth across several key markets. Despite challenges, including ongoing regulatory hurdles and a continued shortage of foreign exchange in certain regions, the Company has managed to stay resilient in its export efforts.

The global shipping landscape remained volatile, with ongoing disruptions in supply chains. However, Tolin Tyres has adapted effectively to these challenges, keeping export shipments on track. Despite these factors, the Company on standalone basis recorded an export turnover of ₹114.15 million for FY25.

Regions such as the Far East and Africa continue to show resilience. In these markets, the Company successfully navigated intense price competition and maintained consistent volumes and revenues. Key categories including, light truck, farm, and 2 & 3-wheeler tyres have seen continued growth, driven by strong consumer demand and product preference.

For FY26, the Company is focused on consolidating its growth in existing strong markets while expanding its presence in emerging markets, with a strategic push for further growth and profitability in the coming year.

Outlook:

The Indian tyre industry is experiencing consistent growth, driven by rising vehicle sales and rapid infrastructure expansion across the country. With the automotive sector on an upward trajectory, the demand for superior-quality tyres is set to grow substantially in both domestic and international markets. The industry's outlook remains optimistic, supported by robust demand across key segments such as commercial vehicles, and two-wheelers.

Government-led initiatives aimed at boosting infrastructure—such as enhanced road networks, improved transportation facilities, and incentives for electric mobility—are expected to directly benefit the tyre sector. These developments are likely to drive growth in both the replacement and OEM (Original Equipment Manufacturer) tyre markets.

In addition, the growing emphasis on sustainability has spurred innovation within the industry. Tolin Tyres is actively investing in research and development to improve the efficiency, durability, and environmental impact of its products, including the creation of tyres designed for better fuel efficiency and reduced carbon emissions.

Operational Overview:

Tolin Tyres continuously monitors its product position in the market, taking into account demand trends and technological advancements to sustain its growth. The Company is exploring opportunities for innovation, particularly in the development of new tyre models and expansion into emerging markets. The Company operates in a dynamic environment marked by increasing competition, fluctuating raw material prices, and the need for sustainable manufacturing practices.

Industry Structure and Developments:

- The Indian tyre industry is a vital component of the nation's manufacturing sector, producing over 200 million units annually across various categories, including two-wheelers, passenger vehicles, commercial vehicles, and off-road vehicles. This extensive production capacity positions India as one of the world's leading tyre manufacturers.

- Self-Sufficiency and Domestic Capabilities

The Automotive Tyre Manufacturers' Association (ATMA) has declared that India's tyre industry is self-sufficient, capable of meeting domestic demand without reliance on imports. This assertion is supported by substantial investments exceeding ₹35,000 crore in capacity expansion, technological upgrades, and research and development by leading manufacturers. These investments have enhanced the industry's ability to fulfil domestic requirements and reduce dependency on imported tyres.

- Export Performance and Global Integration

Indian tyre exports have demonstrated significant growth, with exports reaching ₹23,073 crore in FY24, nearly doubling from ₹12,844 crore in FY20. This growth underscores the industry's increasing integration with global supply chains. Indian tyres are now exported to over 170 countries, with the United States accounting for approximately 18% of total exports.

- Technological Advancements and Innovation

The industry is embracing technological advancements, including automation, digitization, and the adoption of Industry 4.0 practices. Investments in research and development have increased, focusing on producing high-quality, sustainable, and performance-oriented tyres. These innovations aim to enhance product offerings and meet evolving consumer demands both domestically and internationally.

- Challenges and Future Outlook

Despite its robust growth, the industry faces challenges such as global supply chain disruptions, geopolitical tensions, and rising shipping costs. Additionally, regulatory requirements related to natural rubber imports pose constraints on export performance. Addressing these challenges through policy support and strategic initiatives will be crucial for sustaining growth and enhancing the industry's global competitiveness.

Report on the audit of the consolidated financial statementsOpinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of TOLINS TYRES LIMITED ("the Holding Company") and its subsidiary (Holding company and its subsidiary together referred to as "Group"), which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at March 31st, 2025, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss Account (including other comprehensive income), the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity and Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (herein and after referred to as "Consolidated Financial Statement").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Consolidated Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the act read with the companies (Indian Accounting standards) Rule 2015, as amended, ("Ind AS") and generally accepted accounting principles in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Company as at March 31st, 2025 and its consolidated Profit, consolidated total comprehensive income, consolidated changes in equity and its consolidated cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit of consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards on auditing (SA's) specified under section 143 (10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the code of ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's code of ethics.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Sl No	Key Audit Matters	Our Response
1	The company uses several systems for its overall financial reporting and there is a large volume of transactions being recorded at multiple locations daily. In addition, there are increasing challenges to protect the integrity of the company's systems and data since cyber security has become a more significant risk in recent periods. Due to the pervasive nature and complexity of the IT environment as well as its importance in relation to accurate and timely financial reporting, we have identified this area as a Key Audit Matter.	Due to the automated controls and high degree of dependence in information systems, there is a risk that the financial accounting and reporting records may be misstated in case of any control lapses in the IT system related controls. We have designed our audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines laid down in the Standard on Auditing (SA 530) and tested the controls in the Information Technology Systems on a sample basis which has an impact on the financial accounting and reporting records. We have also tested on a sample basis the controls related to access management including user rights in passing entries, approval for authorizing entries, authorization for reversing entries, segregation of duties, system password protection, external software/hardware access rights etc. Based on our sample review, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls.
2	The company holds a significant amount of inventory, including raw materials, work-in-progress, and finished goods, across various locations and manufacturing plant. The valuation of these inventories is critical as it directly impacts the company's financial results. The complexity arises from the need to correctly allocate costs, determine the net realizable value, and assess the potential obsolescence of inventory. Given the scale of operations and diversity of products, the valuation process requires significant management judgment, particularly in estimating the recoverable amounts of inventory items that may be slow-moving or obsolete.	We have assessed the effectiveness of the company's internal controls over inventory management, including physical counts and the valuation process. We have attended physical inventory counts at key locations to observe the procedures and ensure that the inventory quantities recorded were accurate. Reconciliation of physical inventory counts to the inventory records was conducted, along with testing a sample of inventory items for valuation accuracy. Reliance was placed on stock audit report made for the purpose of valuation of inventory.
3	Completeness in identification and disclosure of related party transactions in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.	We have accessed the laid down systems and processes of the Company in identifying related party transactions and its ultimate disclosure in financial statements in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have designed the audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in Standard on Auditing (SA 550) to identify the risks of material misstatement arising from an entity's failure to appropriately account for or disclose material related party transactions. We have also reviewed the minutes of meetings of the board in the course of the audit to identify any transactions that may require disclosure in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.

4	Effective oversight and control over capital expenditure (capex) is essential to ensure the accuracy and completeness of financial reporting related to property, plant and equipment (PPE). The complex nature of capex, often involving multiple locations, stages of execution and stakeholders, increases the risk of misclassification, cut-off errors or omission of assets under construction. Furthermore, the accounting for PPE requires management to exercise significant judgement and estimation in areas such as capitalization of costs, determination of useful lives, residual value computation and assessment of impairment indicators. These judgements have a material impact on the carrying value of PPE in the balance sheet and the related charges to profit and loss. Given the financial significance of capex and the extent of management judgement involved, this area was considered a key audit matter in our audit.	Our audit approach consisted testing of the design and operating effectiveness of the internal controls and substantive testing as follows: We assessed Company's process regarding maintenance of records and accounting of transactions pertaining to property, plant and equipment including capital work in progress with reference to Ind AS 16. We have carried out substantive audit procedures at financial and assertion level to verify the capitalization of assets as Property, Plant & Equipment We have reviewed management judgement pertaining to estimation of useful life and depreciation of the Property, Plant and Equipment in accordance with Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. We have relied on physical verification conducted by management and the technical certificate produced to us.
5	The Company has significant trade receivables, including balances denominated in foreign currencies. The realisability of these receivables involves management judgment in assessing credit risk. Foreign currency balances are subject to translation under Ind AS 21, and material portions require external confirmation, particularly from overseas customers. Due to the estimation uncertainty, foreign exchange volatility and the reliance on third-party evidence, we identified this as a key audit matter.	We assessed the design and implementation of internal controls over receivables management and performed substantive procedures on trade receivables, including those denominated in foreign currencies. We tested ageing and reviewed subsequent collections. For balances selected for external confirmation where responses were not received, we applied alternative audit procedures in accordance with SA 505. We also reviewed the foreign currency retranslation of receivables under Ind AS 21 and noted certain balances not translated properly. The recalculated adjustments are to be effected fully. Accordingly, we obtained audit evidence to a reasonable extent; however, due to the absence of confirmations and incomplete retranslation, a residual risk of misstatement remains, which has been reported to those charged with governance.

6	The Company recognises revenue from the sales of products when control over goods is transferred to the customer based on specific terms and conditions of sale contracts with respective customers. We have identified recognition of revenue on sale of products as a key audit matter as revenue is a key performance indicator; and there is a presumed fraud risk of revenue being overstated through manipulation of the timing of transfer of control	In view of the significance of the matter we applied the following audit procedures in this area, among others to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence: We assessed the appropriateness of the policies in respect of revenue recognition by comparing with applicable accounting standards. We performed testing of design, implementation and operating effectiveness of the Company's key manual controls around revenue recognition. We also performed substantive testing (including year-end cut-off testing) of recognition of revenue in the correct period by selecting statistical samples of revenue transactions recorded during and at the end of the financial year. We reviewed the underlying documents such as sales invoices/ contracts and dispatch/ shipping documents for the selected transactions. We assessed manual journals posted in revenue ledger to identify any unusual items

Information other than the consolidated financial statements and auditors' report thereon

The Company's board of directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report and Business Responsibility Report but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's responsibility for the consolidated financial statements

The Company's board of directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134 (5) of the companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance (including other comprehensive income), changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and including other accounting principles generally accepted in India. (accounting standards specified under section 133 of the Act, read with the companies (accounting standards) rule, 2006, as amended).

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management of the holding company is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Boards of Directors of the entities included in the Group are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

TOLINS TYRES LIMITED (formerly known as Tolins Tyres Private Limited),

Report on the internal financial controls over financial reporting under clause (i) of sub – section 3 of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

Opinion

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the ("the Holding Company") as at 31st March 2025, in conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Holding company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial control system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Management's responsibility for internal financial controls

The board of directors of the Holding Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Group based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the standards on auditing prescribed under Section 143 (10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those standards and the guidance note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement in the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial control system over financial reporting.

Meaning of internal financial controls over financial reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that;

- (i) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (ii) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- (iii) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management of override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

SI No	Key Audit Matters	Our Response
1	The company uses several systems for its overall financial reporting and there is a large volume of transactions being recorded at multiple locations daily. In addition, there are increasing challenges to protect the integrity of the company's systems and data since cyber	Due to the automated controls and high degree of dependence in information systems, there is a risk that the financial accounting and reporting records may be misstated in case of any control lapses in the IT system related controls. We have designed our audit procedures in accordance security has become a more significant risk in recent periods. Due to the pervasive nature and complexity of the IT environment as well as its importance in relation to accurate and timely financial reporting, we have identified this area as a Key Audit Matter.	with the guidelines laid down in the Standards on Auditing (SA 530) and tested the controls in the Information Technology Systems on a sample basis which has an impact on the financial accounting and reporting records. We have also tested on a sample basis the controls related to access management including user rights in passing entries, approval for authorizing entries, authorization for reversing entries, segregation of duties, system password protection, external software/hardware access rights etc. Based on our sample review, no material weakness was identified in the IT related systems and controls.

2	The company holds a significant amount of inventory, including raw materials, work-in-progress, and finished goods, across various locations and manufacturing plant. The valuation of these inventories is critical as it directly impacts the company's financial results. The complexity arises from the need to correctly allocate costs, determine the net realizable value, and assess the potential obsolescence of inventory. Given the scale of operations and diversity of products, the valuation process requires significant management judgment, particularly in estimating the recoverable amounts of inventory items that may be slow-moving or obsolete.	We have assessed the effectiveness of the company's internal controls over inventory management, including physical counts and the valuation process. We have attended physical inventory counts at key locations to observe the procedures and ensure that the inventory quantities recorded were accurate. Reconciliation of physical inventory counts to the inventory records was conducted, along with testing a sample of inventory items for valuation accuracy. Reliance was placed on stock audit report made for the purpose of valuation of inventory.
3	Completeness in identification and disclosure of related party transactions in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.	We have accessed the laid down systems and processes of the Company in identifying related party transactions and its ultimate disclosure in financial statements in accordance with the applicable reporting framework. We have designed the audit procedures in accordance with the guidelines prescribed in Standards on Auditing (SA 550) to identify the risks of material misstatement arising from an entity's failure to appropriately account for or disclose material related party transactions. We have also reviewed the minutes of meetings of the board in the course of the audit to identify any transactions that may require disclosure in accordance with the applicable reporting framework.

Sl No	Key Audit Matters	Our Response
4	Effective oversight and control over capital expenditure (capex) is essential to ensure the accuracy and completeness of financial reporting related to property, plant and equipment (PPE). The complex nature of capex, often involving multiple locations, stages of execution and stakeholders, increases the risk of misclassification, cut-off errors or omission of assets under construction. Furthermore, the accounting for PPE requires management to exercise significant judgement and estimation in areas such as capitalization of costs, determination of useful lives, residual value computation and assessment of impairment indicators. These judgements have a material impact on the carrying value of PPE in the balance sheet and the related charges to profit and loss. Given the financial significance of capex and the extent of management judgement involved, this area was considered a key audit matter in our audit.	Our audit process consisted testing of the design and operating effectiveness of the internal controls and substantive testing as follows: We assessed Company's process regarding maintenance of records and accounting of transactions pertaining to property, plant and equipment including capital work in progress with reference to Ind AS 16. We have carried out substantive audit procedures at financial and assertion level to verify the capitalization of assets as Property, Plant & Equipment We have reviewed management judgement pertaining to estimation of useful life, residual value and depreciation of the Property, Plant and Equipment in accordance with Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. We have relied on physical verification conducted by management and the technical certificate produced to us.
5	The Company has significant trade receivables, including balances denominated in foreign currencies. The realisability of these receivables involves management judgment in assessing credit risk. Foreign currency balances are subject to translation under Ind AS 21, and material portions require external confirmation, particularly from overseas customers. Due to the estimation uncertainty, foreign exchange volatility and the reliance on third-party evidence, we identified this as a key audit matter.	We assessed the design and implementation of internal controls over receivables management and performed substantive procedures on trade receivables, including those denominated in foreign currencies. We tested ageing and reviewed subsequent collections. For balances selected for external confirmation where responses were not received, we applied alternative audit procedures in accordance with SA 505. We also reviewed the foreign currency retranslation of receivables under Ind AS 21 and noted certain balances not translated properly. The recalculated adjustments are to be effected fully. Accordingly, we obtained audit evidence to a reasonable extent; however, due to the absence of confirmations and incomplete retranslation, a residual risk of misstatement remains, which has been reported to those charged with governance.

We performed testing of design, implementation and operating effectiveness of the Company's key manual controls around revenue recognition. We also performed substantive testing (including year-end cut-off testing) of recognition of revenue in the correct period by selecting statistical samples of revenue transactions recorded during and at the end of the financial year. We reviewed the underlying documents such as sales invoices/ contracts and dispatch/ shipping documents for the selected transactions. We assessed manual journals posted in revenue ledger to identify any unusual items

Information other than the standalone financial statements and auditors' report thereon

The Company's board of directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report and Business responsibility report but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's responsibility for the standalone financial statements

The Company's board of directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134 (5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the IND AS and including other accounting principles generally accepted in India. (accounting standards specified under section 133 of the Act, read with the companies (accounting standards) rule, 2006, as amended).

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Standalone Financial Statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Standalone Financial Statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the standalone financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Standalone Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Standalone Financial Statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Standalone Financial Statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Standalone Financial Statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

TOLINS TYRES LIMITED (formerly known as TOLINS TYRES PRIVATE LIMITED),

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under clause (i) of sub - section 3 of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

Opinion

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the ("the Company") as at 31st March 2025, in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial control system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Management's responsibility for internal financial controls

The board of directors of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the standards on auditing prescribed under Section 143 (10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those standards and the guidance note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement in the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial control system over financial reporting.

Meaning of internal financial controls over financial reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that;

- (i) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (ii) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- (iii) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management of override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.
